

THE PATH FROM INNOVATION TO COMMERCIALIZATION

Emily W. Loughran
Office of Intellectual Property
UCLA

Who are we and what do we do?

- ❑ Office of Intellectual Property established in the early 1990's
- ❑ A group of 23 professionals engaged in support of the research enterprise and technology transfer.
- ❑ Patenting, marketing, licensing and material transfers handled by OIP
- ❑ Assistance to faculty start ups
 - Introductions to VCs
 - Guidance regarding conflict of interest
 - Linkage to local resources

STATISTICS for FY06

- ❑ $717M in Research Funding
- ❑ 264 new invention disclosures
- ❑ 39 new license or option agreements
- ❑ 156 active license agreements
- ❑ Active equity holdings in 20 companies
- ❑ $22M in Licensing Revenue

UCLA Products on the Market

- UCLA has 25 royalty bearing products on the market
- Examples of the most successful

The Nicotine Patch

GDC Coil

Micro-pet imaging

IBD Diagnostic

OIP New Initiatives

- ❑ Entretech-UCLA now member
- ❑ OCTANE
- ❑ Faculty/Industry Outreach Events
Start Up event on July 25th
- ❑ Internal Seed Fund
- ❑ Increase in number of OIP professional staff
- ❑ OIP professional staff from venture community

MORE INFORMATION ON OIP

<http://www.research.ucla.edu/oipa>